

Global Terrorism

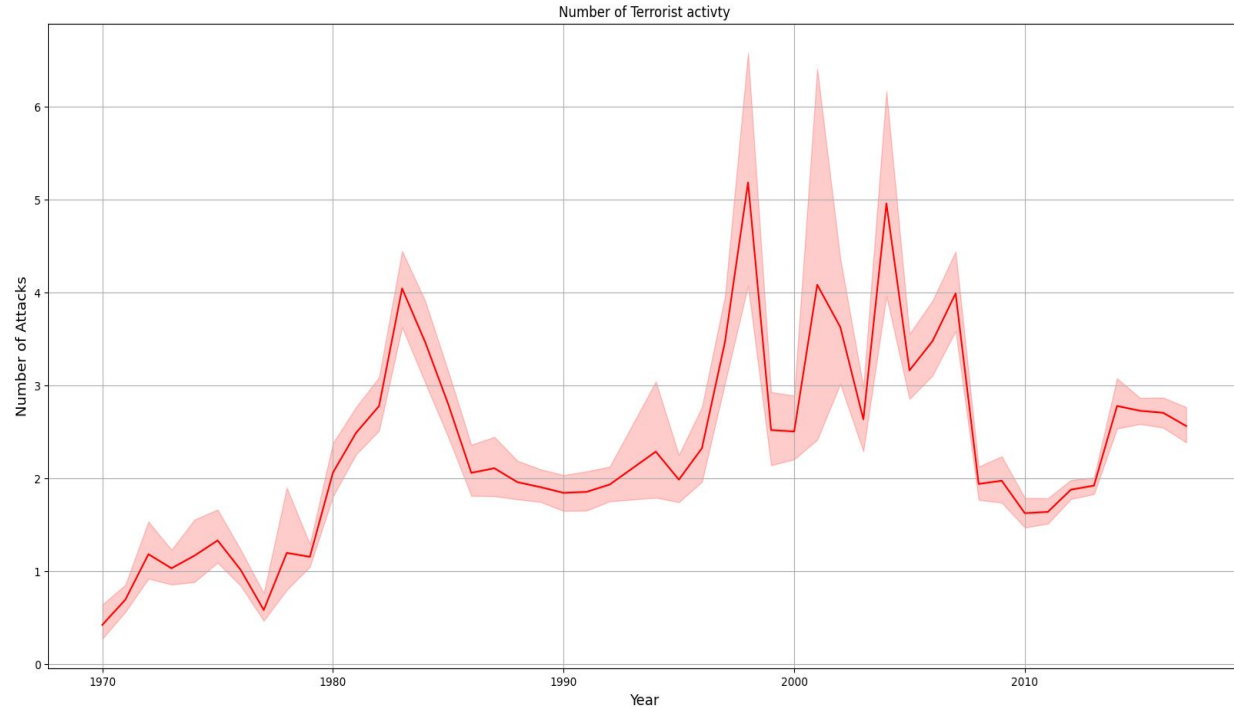

By Kyle Parsotan
Data Analysis Internship @ LetsGrowMore

Number of Terrorist Activity

From 1970 to 2017, there is a significant increase in the number of attacks throughout the years.

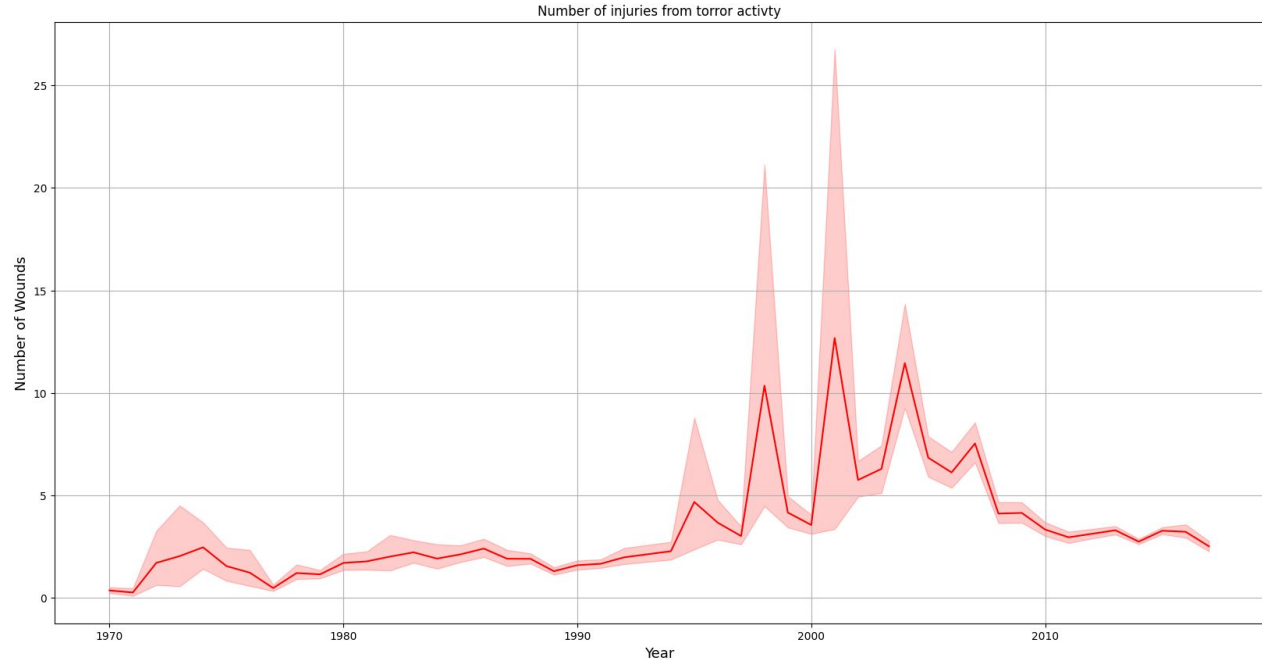

There is a peak between 1997-1999 of around 5 attacks between that year.

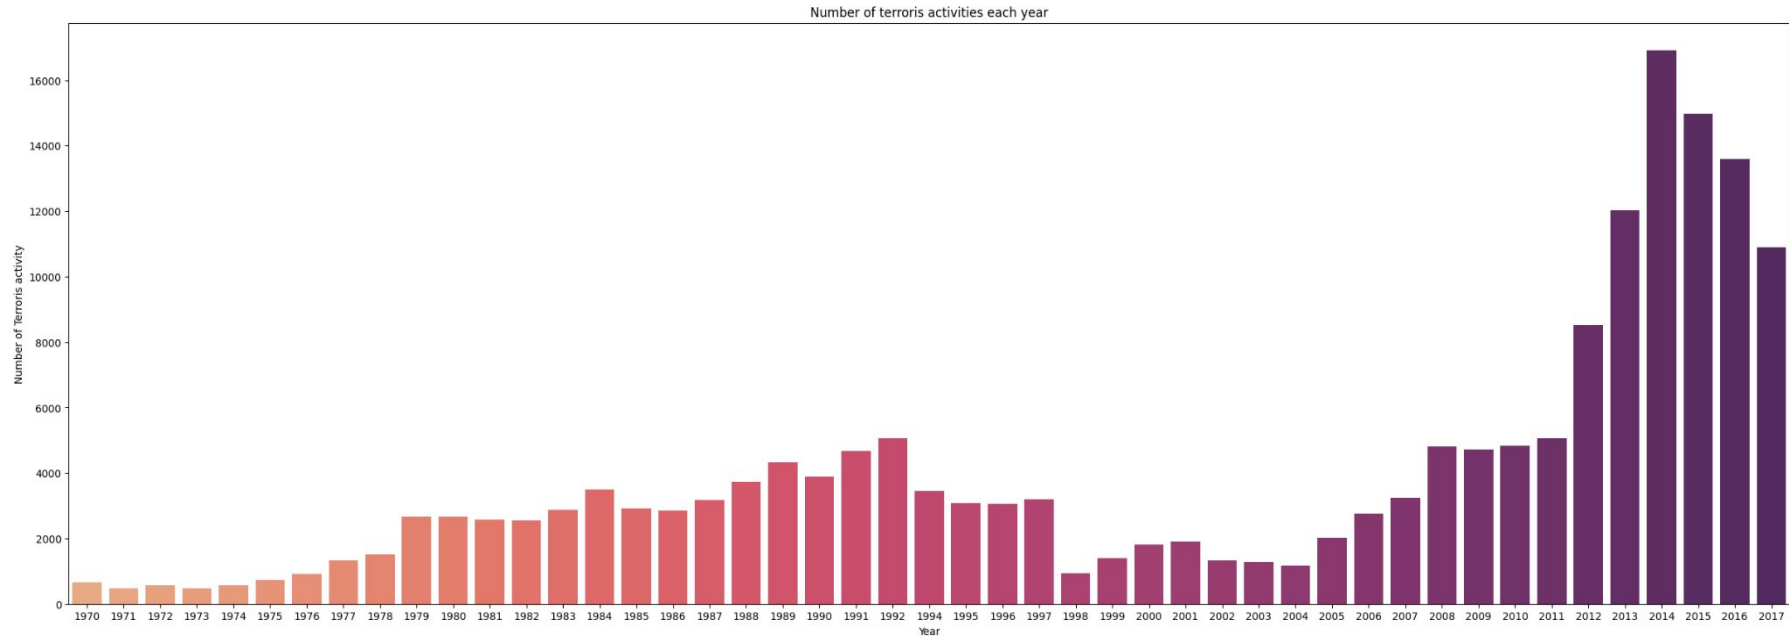

Number of Injuries from terrorist activities

From 2000 to 2002, there is a peak of around 12 to 13 wounded from the terror attacks.

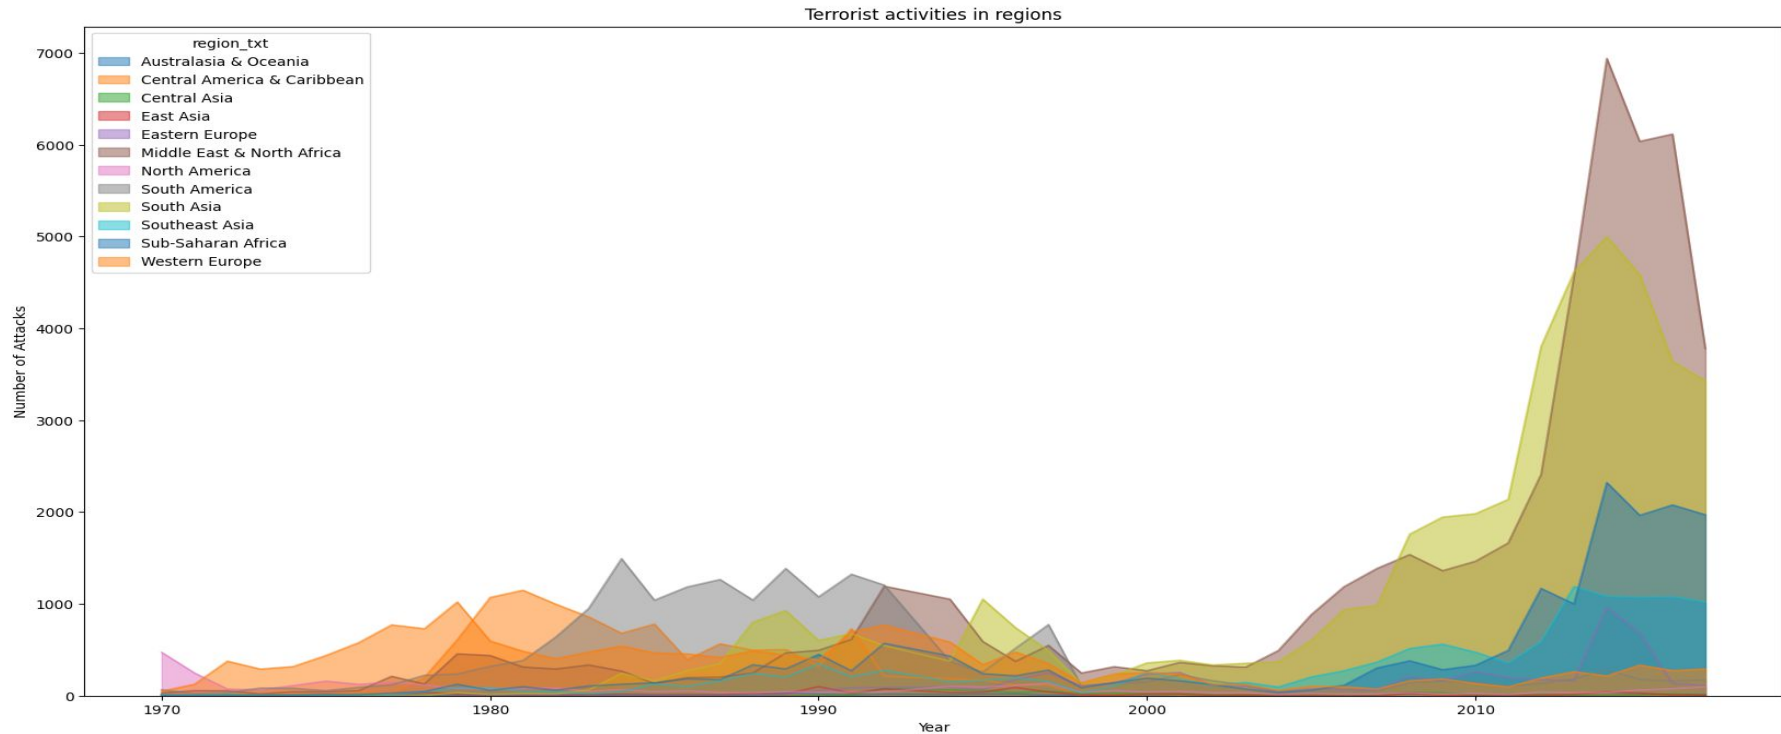

From 1970 to 2000, the number of wounded is significantly low until 2001.

Global terrorist activotiy has risen from 2005 with a peak around 2014 this increased global activities around the world. The graph shows that there was less terrorist activities in the 1900s compare to the late 2000s.

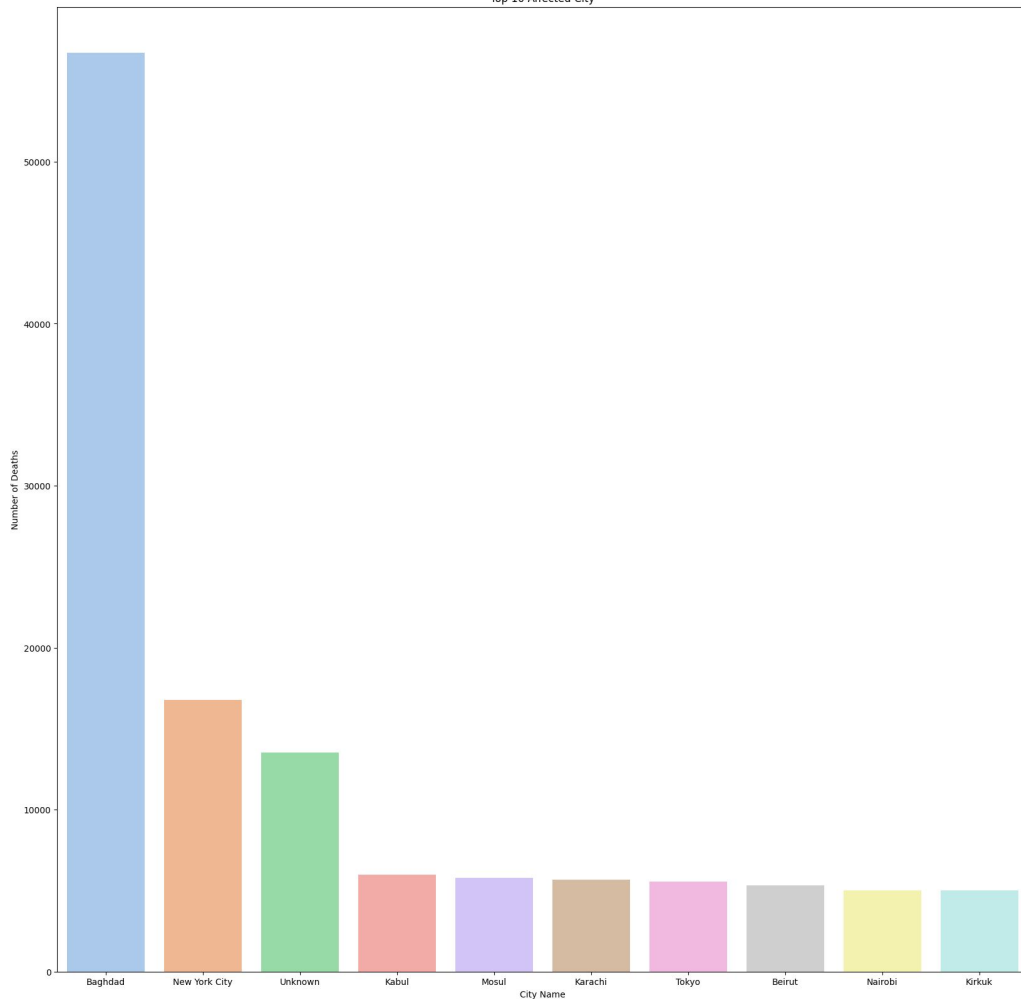

Number of trorr activities each year

Around late 2000s, there was a peak for most regions (South Asia, Eastern Europe, Australasia & Oceania) that experienced an increase in significant terror attacks.

Terrorist Activities in Regions

Top 10 Affected City

Top 10 Affected City

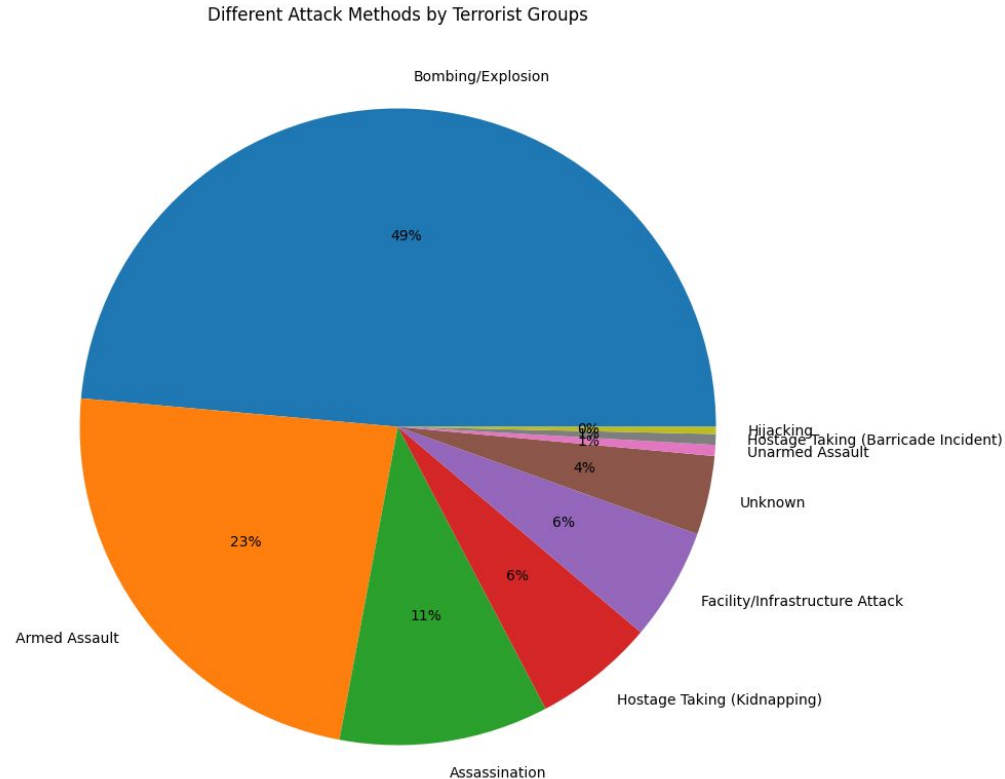

Baghdad has the most amount of number of deaths compare to the reast of the cities.

Most of the activities happen in the middle east.

Different Attack Methods by Terrorist Attack Groups

The graph on the right shows the different attacks methods by the terrorist groups.

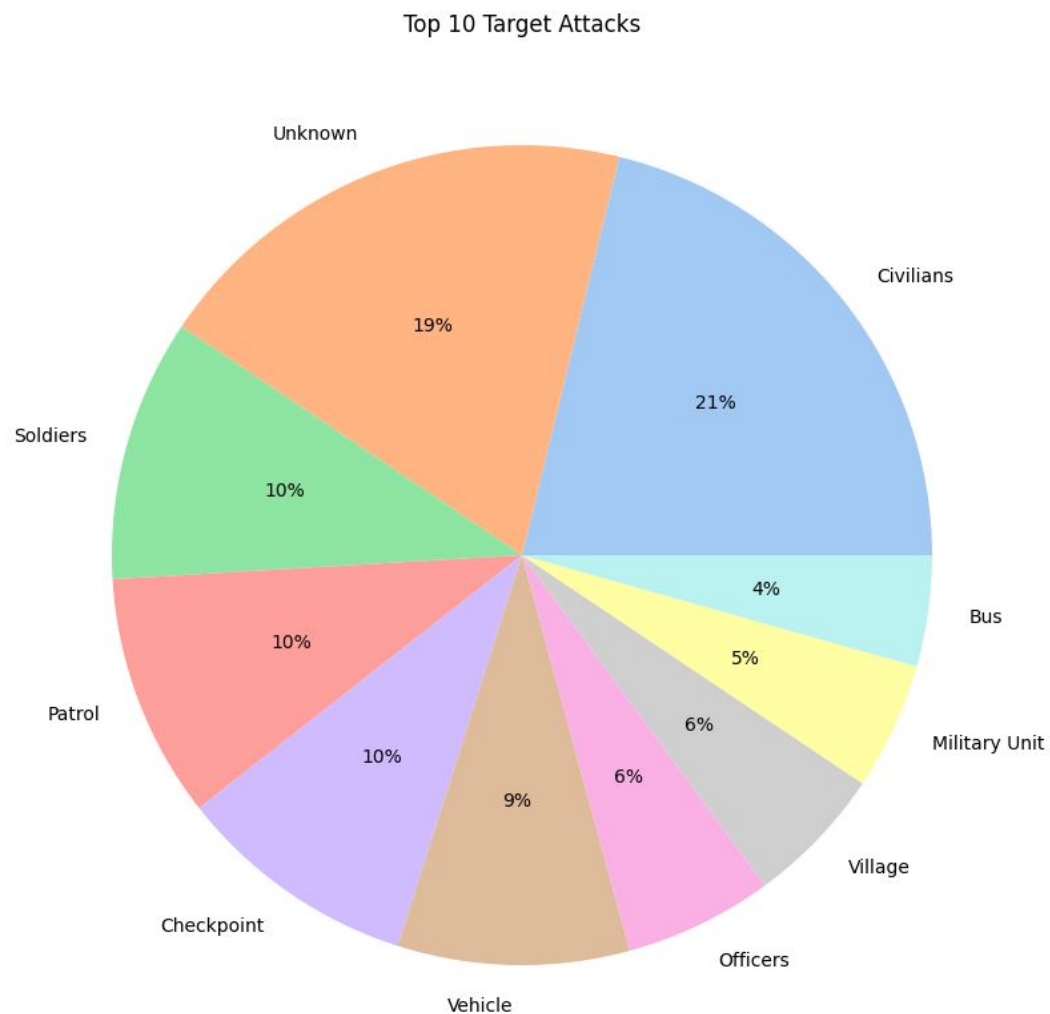

The bombing/explosive and armed assault are mostly used within the terrorist group for the different terrorist attacks.

Top 10 Target Attacks

The graph on the right shows the top 10 targets that gets attacked during terrorist attacks.

The most targeted attacks happens to unknown, civilians and soldiers.

Private citizens and property has significantly increased over time along with the number of attacks.

